Ambassadors Club

2007

What is the Ambassadors Club?

The Galveston Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors Club is a committee of goodwill representatives whose objective is to promote the Galveston Chamber and maintain its membership strength.

What does an Ambassador do?

Ambassadors are responsible for welcoming new and expanding businesses to the Chamber at ribbon cuttings, mixers, luncheons, personal visits and special events. Ambassadors should actively recruit members and continue to represent the Chamber while conducting business for themselves in the community.

What is my commitment?

Attend 60% of Chamber events, be a friend to new businesses, encourage non-members to join & conduct yourself as a representative of the Chamber.

When do the Ambassadors meet?

The Ambassadors Club meets quarterly at different locations

What are ribbon cuttings?

Ribbon cuttings introduce new members to the Galveston Chamber of Commerce and help celebrate special occasions, such as a move to a new location, the opening of a new branch, or an anniversary milestone. They are usually held Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons. Ambassadors are expected to attend ribbon cuttings and mixers regularly.

What special events are held?

The Galveston Chamber of Commerce hosts a variety of events throughout the year, including the Golf Tournament, and Business Luncheons.

Who can be an Ambassador?

Any person who is a representative for an active Chamber member may join the Ambassadors Club.

How do I become an Ambassador?

We're glad you asked! To join the Ambassadors Club, simply fill out the form on the back page and return to the Galveston Chamber of Commerce. If you have any questions, please call the Chamber office.

Point System

A point system has been established to recognize and award Ambassadors for various levels of participation. Each Ambassador is responsible for keeping up with points and submitting points. Points will be calculated quarterly and Ambassadors with the highest point total will be recognized.
